Grilling in style

Grilling is without a doubt a question of having the right equipment.

And it doesn't just consist of coal, grate and tongs, but also of strong dishes with outdoor functionality.

The BBQ collection shows what this looks like: bowls, dishes and jugs are equipped with versatile lids. This keeps wasps away from meat, salads and marinades.

The porcelain covers also protect against sunlight, heat and flying leaves, sand and dust. This ensures that marinated grilled ingredients and side dishes remain yummy.

And of course, they can also be stacked in this way, for example to transport salads, meat and fish in a space-saving manner.

day and night

Moon Meadow reflects the change of day and night.

It is the longing for peace and simplicity, for moments of silence and harmony with nature.
Moon Meadow reminds us that even in the busiest of everyday life there are small islands of peace and beauty.

The fine lines and soft pastel colors of the plant motifs evoke memories of warm summer nights and walks through dewy meadows.

The chosen pastel colors flow harmoniously into one another and thus create a feeling of calm and security.
The plant motifs, which have been lovingly worked out in detail, appear almost alive, as if they could start growing at any moment and fill the room with their gentle scent.

Moon Meadow invites you to admire the craftsmanship and attention to detail.

Art of Nature

Wildflower is the delicate poetry of nature with the enchanting art of watercolor painting.

In a world that is often characterized by hecticness and stress, the Wildflower decor aims to remind us of the importance of living in harmony with nature.

Wildflower speaks to those who value conscious living, who find inspiration and relaxation in nature. It reminds us that life at its most beautiful blooms in the quiet, inconspicuous moments – in a glance at a wild flower, in a deep breath of fresh air, in a moment of stillness.

Wildflower's watercolor painting is more than just a painting – it is a window to nature, a source of inspiration and an anchor of calm.
